Manager Stadsmuseum Woerden

Woont te Utrecht, bestuurslid van ICOM international committee CECA 2004-2019.

Biography:

Work experience: Three days a week she is leading Stadsmuseum Woerden, the city museum of Woerden, a small, ancient city between Gouda and Utrecht (www.stadsmuseumwoerden.nl). In addition she is running her own business 'Arja van Veldhuizen – culture | heritage | education', providing services for museums and other cultural organisations. Her website will be online soon. She also is guest lecturer museum/heritage education at the Reinwardt Academy since 2008.

Until June 2018 Arja worked at 'Landschap Erfgoed Utrecht' (Landscape & Heritage Utrecht), an institution supporting all heritage institutions – including museums – in the province of Utrecht. She was leading the team of educators and providing all kinds of advice to museums and heritage institutions.

Between 2005 and 2008 Arja was Head of Education & Exhibits in 'CODA', the combined museum, archives and public library of the city of Apeldoorn. Her roots are in the Amsterdam Historical Museum, where she was museum educator from 1986-2005.

Arja has been involved in CECA since 1989, she is active member of the Board since 2004, now responsible for special projects.
