

Program Symposium Heritage under Attack, November 14th 2014

- 11:30-12:30 Lunch and registration (lunch will be served till 12:15) at the Van Braam Houckgeestkazerne, Oude Arnhemse Bovenweg 1d, 3941 XM in Doorn.
- 12:30-12:45 Moderator Louk de la Rive Box introduces the theme and the organizing parties.
- 12:45-13:30 Keynote speaker Kateryna Chuyeva, Secretary General of the recently established Blue Shield Ukraine.

Pecha Kuchas

- 13:30-13:38 Marjan Otter, lecturer at Reinwardt Academy, institute for Museology and Heritage Studies and former board member of Blue Shield Netherlands and ANCBS. Otter guided the international Blue Shield rescue mission for the Historisches Archiv der Stad Köln, that collapsed in 2009.
- 13:38-13:46 Jos van Beurden, researcher on issues of illicit traffic and restitution of cultural heritage. Van Beurden will focus on the silence around objects and collections, acquired during the European colonial era in contested manners and in circumstances of war and violent conflict. He answers the question: What can we contribute to it?
- 13:46-14:54 Edwin Maes, lecturer and researcher at the section Cultural Affairs & Information, and liaison officer for cultural heritage, at the Dutch Ministry of Defence. What is the army's role in the protection of cultural heritage?
- 14:54-14:02 Deborah Stolk, program coordinator at Prince Claus Fund. The fund runs the Cultural Emergency Response (CER) Program. Cultural resilience in Conflict and Disaster: the Prince Claus Funds' cultural ambulance.
- 14:02-14:10 Yvette Shamier, linguist and lecturer, born in Syria close to the Crac de Chevalier, one of the best known Crusaders castles in the world. During the last four years Mrs. Shamier has been frequently traveling to Syria for humanitarian help, working together with Dutch NGO's and local churches in Syria. Syria, from Splendor to Tragedy.
- 14:10-14:30 Moderator Louk de la Rive Box reflects on the presentations.
- 14:30-14:50 Coffee/tea break
- 14:50-15:35 Keynote speaker Samuel Sidibé, director of Musée National du Mali. Cultural heritage facing armed conflict: Malian case.
- 15:35-15:45 Louk de la Rive Box interviews Joost van Aalst, former Vice admiral of the Dutch armed forces.
- 15:45-16:15 Panel Discussion
- 16:15-16:30 Towards Huis Doorn, Langbroekerweg 10, 3941 MT Doorn (on one's own or with free shuttle service). Huis Doorn is the former residence of the German Emperor Wilhelm II after World War I. He was given asylum by the Dutch government. Recently, Huis Doorn was appointed as a place for commemorating World War I, showing a permanent exhibition.
- 16:30-17:30 Drinks & Canapés Reception at Huis Doorn. There is no transport service back to the Van Braam Houckgeest kazerne.

Register at: www.icomnederland.nl/heritageunderattack
Follow us on <https://www.facebook.com/HeritageunderAttack>

blue shield

Huis Doorn

DutchCulture
centre for international cooperation